Property Description

General Site Overview:

Centerville is a popular vacation destination in the summer located just outside of Hyannis, which is locally known as the “City on Cape Cod”. Centerville is known for its pristine beaches along the neighborhood of Craigville, less than a mile south of Route 28, and a busy working town all year. The traffic count for Route 28 in Centerville is 25,000 cars per day making it a quintessential location for retail/office businesses.

Complex Description:

The Bell Tower site contains 9.91± Acres with an 82,621± SF retail plaza of which 73,621± SF is leasable, and 85,000± SF of asphalt parking located directly on Falmouth Road, Route 28. This area has incredibly high visibility in a high traffic area. Located along this stretch of road are three traffic signal lights and many complementary businesses on either side of the road.

Bell Tower was built in 1988 and has approximately 34± units total. Several businesses currently occupy this plaza with a complementary fit to the neighborhood as well. There is an actual bell in the tower, which is the signature to this building, hence the name, Bell Tower.

The first floor has approximately 22 units. The plaza is located directly on Falmouth Road, Route 28, having large display windows, easy access and first floor handicap accessibility.

This first floor Unit contains approximately 2,800± SF of leasable retail space in a prime center location in the plaza. Rent is $22/SF NNN.
